Opportunity with Dakshin’s Sustainable Fisheries Programme

Number of vacancies: One

Position: Intern, Sustainable Fisheries Programme

Duration: Two months (Starting in October, 2023)

Position Details:

We are seeking an intern to assist us with designing some creative cartographic assets for the Sustainable Fisheries Programme at Dakshin Foundation. Dakshin works on multiple ecological and social research projects around the pole & line tuna fishery in the Lakshadweep Islands. Each year, we produce outreach materials in Malayalam, Malh and English, that are circulated widely among the fishing community, in government offices, and at public places, and are a huge hit in Lakshadweep!

The chief responsibilities will be to:

● Collaborate with researchers to create visually engaging content and produce outputs like posters, brochures, etc on time.
● Design and lay out the outputs using design software like Adobe illustrator, Adobe InDesign, etc.
● Help in engaging with external printers regularly to ensure deadlines are met and samples/ materials are printed to the highest quality.

Location: This will be primarily based out of Dakshin Foundation’s office in Bangalore.

Desired Skills and Qualifications

● Experience/ interest in working on map design projects.
● Ability to create designs that resonate with our primary target audience (fisher communities of Lakshadweep).
● Knowledge of design software like Adobe illustrator, Adobe InDesign, etc.

Remuneration

A stipend will be provided commensurate with Dakshin Foundation’s internal policies and standards.
How to Apply

Fill out this form by the 20th of October, 2023.
